VISCOUNT SAITO ANNOUNCES JAPANESE CABINET RESIGNATION

MOMENTOUS GERMAN CABINET MEETING

VON PAPEN'S FUTURE IN BALANCE TO-DAY

WILHEMSTRASSE AREA INCIDENT

Berlin, To-day. The Cabinet meeting arranged for to-day will be the most momentous since the inauguration of the Nazi regime. It will deliberate, inter alia, the future of Vice-Chancellor von Papen, and the fate of the Storm Troop leaders.

It is understood that Herr von Papen has already been exonerated from complicity in the plot. He is expected to be released and superseded in the Vice-Chancellorship by General Goering, the Prussian Premier and Reich Minister of Aviation.

It is ascertained that Herr. Strasser, the former Nazi leader, was among those shot.

EXCITEMENT WAS RENEWED HERE YESTERDAY EVENING BY THE SUDDEN BARRICADING OF THE WILHEMSTRASSE AREA. A HUGO, WONDERING CROWD GATHERED BEYOND THE POLICE Cordon, BUT IT TRANSPRIRED THAT THE MEASURES WERE TAKEN BECAUSE CHANCELLOR HITLER WAS PAYING A VISIT TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF SIAM, AT THE HOTEL ADLON.—REUTER.

HITLER CURB

Now To Be Prisoner of Reichswehr

LABOUR JOURNAL'S CRITICISM.

Paris Plot Rumour.

London, To-day. The situation in Germany continues to occupy the attention of leader writers.

"The Times" remarks that as far as methods of the Government in respect of human life are concerned, Germany has reverted to mediaeval conditions, but probably during the next few years there will be more reason to be afraid for Germany.

Other commentators are of the opinion that Chancellor Hitler will come to an understanding with the Reichswehr for the disbandment of the Brown Shirts.

In view of this the "Daily Herald" declares that Hitler will henceforth be a prisoner of the Reichswehr, the police, and the Junkers.

The "Daily Herald's" Paris correspondent declares that the shootings in Germany were the sequel to the recent visit of Hitler's emissary, Herr von Ribbentrop, to Paris.

He asserts that Herr Ribbentrop promised M. Louis Barthou, the French Foreign Minister, that if France would agree to the German rearmament proposals, Chancellor Hitler would disband the Storm Troops.

The news of the Paris conversations leaked out in Berlin and the Storm Troop leaders decided to resist disbandment, but spies reported the plot to the Secret Police and Hitler and General Goering promptly foreshadowed it.—Reuter.

LOCAL RAINFALL

The local rainfall recorded at the Royal Observatory for the 24 hours ended 10.30 a.m. to-day was 0.80 inch, bringing the total since January 1 to 40.87 inches, as compared with a normal average of 39.51 inches.

Turbaned troops mounted on camels and carrying rifles shown on the retreat through Yemen, Arabia, before the conquering army of King Ibn Saud of Saudi. The desert was crossed some apprehension in London and warships were dispatched to nearby ports to protect British nationals.

The P. & O. Company's holding in the Cory concern is said to amount to £5,000,000.

SECOND BUDGET ADVOCATED

Anticipating Surplus In Britain.

TAX REDUCTION SOUGHT

London, To-day.

Mr. A. Duff Cooper, the newly appointed Financial Secretary of the Treasury, replied in the House of Commons yesterday to a question as to whether, in view of the fact that revenue and expenditure for the first quarter of the financial year was foreseen a substantial surplus at the end of the year, that the Chancellor of the Exchequer would introduce a second Budget, making further tax reductions.

He replied that it was quite impossible to base any sound conclusions in revenue returns relating only to the first quarter of the financial year.—British Wireless Service.

FURTHER BREAK IN THE MARK.

Rise In Exchange Value Of Dollar.

SPECIAL TO CHINA MAIL.
(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894, Received July 3, 8.40 a.m.)

Chicago, To-day.

The well-known economist, Professor Harland Allen states that the last German tension will probably cause a further break in the mark and also a sympathetic weakness in other European currencies, which will raise the exchange value of the dollar.

Commodity prices are likely to soar in Germany and fall in the United States.—United Press, S. E. Levy and Company.

Mr. Sun Fo, President of the Legislative Yuan, with Mrs. Sun Fo and children left Shanghai yesterday by the ss. Empress of Canada for Hongkong, where they will spend their summer vacation.

TWO BORDERERS FOUND

Want Of Food Causes Surrender.

The two privates of the South Wales Borderers, Wilfred George Starmore and George Walker, who were reported absent from Murray Barracks without leave since last Friday, gave themselves up at Kowloon City police station at 8.40 a.m. to-day.

With their clothes soaking wet, the two men were in a sorry plight on their return, having spent three days in the hills. Their first request was for food and dry clothing.

30-LOVE ON SERVICE AT 5-4 IN FINAL SET

PERRY'S STAMINA TRIUMPHS.

CRAWFORD'S COMEBACK

Two Americans, the 1931 finalists, the Australian holder, and a British player, will contest the semi-final at the Men's Singles Championship at Wimbledon this year.

London, To-day.

Bunny Austin, 1932 finalist, led Frank Shields, 1931 finalist and America's No. 1 ranking player, by two sets to nil and yet lost the match.

The British player was superb in the first and second sets driving and volleying perfectly.

In the third set he led 3-1, but Shields then staged an amazing rally. The American speeded up his play and forced Austin into a series of errors which eventually saw the match level once again after the fourth set.

Austin led 3-0 in the final set, and was 30-love on his service at 5-4. Shields, however, again thrilled the crowded stands with brilliant drop shots which had his slower opponent helpless. In the twelfth game Shields used the British hope to win the set and match.

Shields won by 4-6, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5.

Shields reached the final in 1931, but a knee injury caused him to concede a walk-over to Wood, in view of the Davis Cup contest.

Miss S. Palfrey (U.S.) v. Mme. Mathieu (France).

Miss D. E. Round (Britain) v. Miss Payot (Switzerland).

UNANIMOUS DECISION REACHED

AIR-MINDED KWANGSI

PLANE FACTORY ON LIU RIVER

STUDENT CLASSES HELD.

[From Our Own Correspondent]

Wuchow, To-day.

The Kwangsi Provincial Government is operating a modern aeroplane factory where aeroplanes are manufactured, assembled, and where repair work of all kinds is undertaken. The factory is under the supervision of a European superintendent, who has under his direction an efficient staff of Chinese mechanics.

Up to the present time, the factory turns out all the parts of an aeroplane except the engine. Undoubtedly, in time, this important branch of aeroplane construction will also be introduced.

The factory is located on a river not far from Liuchow, one of the principal cities of Kwangsi Province. A good motor road and a narrow gauge railway connect the plant with the city. The factory was purposely located on the Liu River in order that the transportation of materials could be facilitated. Not only are war planes specialised in by the factory, but bombs of various sizes are also manufactured on the premises.

It is reliably learned that Marshal Chiang Kai-shek left Fengtien this morning aboard the cruiser Chungshan for Nanking.

General Ho Chien will proceed to the capital to-morrow.—Reuter.

TRADE RECOVERY NEAR MONTH

Economics Urges Buying Of Stocks.

SPECIAL TO CHINA MAIL.

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894, Received July 3, 8.40 a.m.)

New York, To-day.

The United States statistician and economist, Mr. Roger Ward Babson, has predicted the end of the business decline as next month. He advised the purchase of stocks.

"We urge vision which will anticipate genuine selling levels. Meanwhile, refuse to be stampeded."

The New York journal "Brookline," anticipates a sharp drop in business in July, but adds that this should complete the current reaction.—United Press, per S. E. Levy and Company.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair to showery, with moderate east winds, was the weather forecast issued by the Royal Observatory this morning.

GRAFT MORE WIDESPREAD THAN THOUGHT
RESPONSIBILITY SHOULDERED.

KURODA SCANDAL SEQUEL

Tokyo, To-day.

The Japanese Cabinet has decided to resign. The ministers met at 10.25 a.m. to-day, and reached an unanimous decision within a few minutes.

The announcement that the decision to resign would be made to-day was made by the Premier, Viscount Saito, yesterday.

Viscount Saito proceeded to the Palace at 1.30 p.m. to submit the Cabinet Ministers' resignations to the Throne.

When the Cabinet met at 10.25 a.m. the Minister of Justice submitted a motion to resign, and the Cabinet agreed.

It is understood that the report indicated graft deeper and more widespread than was originally believed. Fresh evidence is alleged to have implicated a Cabinet Minister and an ex-Cabinet Minister.

Thereupon the Cabinet unanimously voted to shoulder the responsibility and to submit en bloc their resignations to the Throne.

THRONES ACCEPTANCE

The Throne has accepted the Cabinet's resignation.—Reuter.

BRITISH BOY BITTEN

Two More Dogs For Kennedy Town.

NEW UNMUZZLED CASES

Two fresh cases of dog-bite were reported on the island yesterday.

Mr. R. M. Keown's black dog, from No. 15, Stanley Terrace, North Point, bit a British boy, Donald Gray, of No. 18, Stanley Terrace, yesterday afternoon, and has been removed to Kennedy Town for observation.

The police report that there is no suspicion of rabies, although the animal is being kept under observation at Kennedy Town. Donald Gray was playing with the dog when it bit him. He was taken to Hospital but after treatment was permitted to return home.

The black spaniel of Mr. Simons, of the Seamen's Institute, has also been sent to Kennedy Town, after biting Lo Kam, an employee at the Seamen's Institute, last night.

Rustic Beach

Baggy Trousers.

Paris.
Mainbocher in his summer beach styles seems to be bent on pyjama that cease to take on the character of evening gowns.

Each of his new beach and country models can be worn by the most orthodox individual.

This attitude brings an entirely different smartness to kit of this kind, and at least two pyjama models that will go into country gardens have been seen.

One is similar to a workman's overalls and the other a haymaker's smock without the smocking, but fairly wide, baggy trousers. Both are high-necked and seem to suggest, with their great country hay-making hats, an approaching summer fashion for a sun-glow rather than sun-tanned skin. These styles can be imaginatively creating a classic beach vogue when shirts and baggy trousers are slipped off to reveal a swim suit!

ONE SUNDAY AFTERNOON—
KING'S THEATRE

"One Sunday Afternoon," a domestic drama, featuring Gary Cooper and Fay Wray, is Paramount's current release now showing at the King's Theatre.

The action of the story, which takes place in a country dentist's office is a human story of a small town bully, who later became a successful dentist, and who believes that he is in love with a former sweetheart.

After a lapse of 20 years, the girl returns to the town where he works, and Cooper then finds that he is disillusioned.

Supporting Cooper and Fay Wray, are Neil Hamilton, Roscoe Karns, Jane Darwell, Sam Hardy, and Elizabeth Patterson.

"MEN IN WHITE"—QUEEN'S

"Men in White" now showing at the Queen's Theatre, is undoubtedly one of the most effective and distinguished photoplays to reach the screen this season.

Clark Gable, in a memorable performance appears as Dr. Ferguson, the young intern who realizes all the obligations of his profession but struggles against the conflicting claims of the girl he loves. The girl, played by Myrna Loy soon comes to the realization that a doctor so engrossed in his career has no time for love, with the result that the young intern is thrown into compromising circumstances with one of the nurses in his hospital. The ensuing entanglement and its complications bring about a climax that presents a high water mark in dramatic suspense.

The entire cast of "Men in White" as well as its brilliant director, Richard Boleslavsky seem to have put their whole heart into their respective performances. Gable and Miss Loy have never been greater, and honours go also to Jean Harlow and Elizabeth Allan.

"BLOOD MONEY"—ALHAMBRA

Starring George Bancroft, "Blood Money," now showing at the Alhambra Theatre, is a splendid American racketeering story full of action and excitement.

There are a lot of excellent characterizations in "Blood Money." George Bancroft gives such vitality and force to the character of Bill Bailey that you wonder how the screen has survived with him all these months.

Frances Dee, Chick Chandler and Judith Anderson, Broadway stage star making her screen debut, play the other leading roles and do splendidly. Miss Anderson should find a definite niche in pictures for her histrionic talents and her outstanding personality.

THE FOURTH HORSEMAN—
ORIENTAL THEATRE.

"The Fourth Horseman," featuring Tom Mix, noted cowboy star, is Universal Picture's current release now showing at the Oriental Theatre.

The story, written by Nina Wilcox Putnam, is a smashing drama of the "Wild West." Supporting Tom Mix are Margaret Lindsay, Raymond Hatten, Fred Kohler and Buddy Roosevelt.

THE GIRL IN 419—MAJESTIC
THEATRE.

"The Girl in 419," a romantic drama featuring James Dunn and Gloria Stuart, is now showing at the Majestic Theatre.

This E. P. Schulberg production for Paramount tells the story of the affair between a young doctor who heads the emergency hospital and a beautiful girl, identity unknown, who is brought in as a patient, and whose life he saves.

In the cast supporting Dunn and Miss Stuart, are David Manners, Jack La Rue, Shirley Grey, Johnny Hines and William Harrigan.

"MERRY MONARCH"—STAR
THEATRE

On view from Wednesday, the 4th July, 1934, "Merry Monarch," featuring Emil Jannings, the great German character actor, is the current feature picture now showing at the Star Theatre.

The film is a historical and Both are veterans of Paul Coden, noted French flier, for their record a previous trans-Atlantic flight, having made a non-stop flight from Paris to the Pacific Coast, a distance of 8,100 miles. Ideal weather and a tail wind aided them when they set a world's distance mark.

The heaviest fall occurred on June 22, when 9.05 inches fell during the 24 hours. This is the heaviest fall recorded in one day since July 19, 1926.

The total rainfall recorded during 1934 up to July 1 amounted to 40.04 inches, against a normal of 38.43 inches.

SHOWER OF SAND
AT NICE.Believed Carried From African Desert.

NICE.

A shower of sand suddenly fell on Nice while fashionably dressed men and women were promenading. It ruined clothes and gave a curious speckled appearance to motorcars and buildings.

The shower had been preceded by a scorching Sirocco wind, and it is presumed that the sand was carried over many hundreds of miles of water from the African desert.—Reuter.

AMERICA'S PRIEST OF THE AIR.

So far the Air Crusader has ridden on the same emotional wave which carried Franklin Roosevelt to the presidential chair. He is a symbol of the violent changes of opinion which are now dividing Americans into two great camps of planned economists and individualists, and for the moment there is no sign of any abatement in his popularity.

No Personal Profit.

But his future is more difficult to predict. In any other country but America, where a commercialized radio system gives him free scope, success in the measure in which he has attained it would be unthinkable. It is due, partly, to a sympathetic voice and to a gift of picturesque oratory, but, mainly, to his accurate interpretation of the attitude of the man in the street towards the recent scandals in American finance.

So long as there are bankers to baste and big business men to bully, Father Coughlin's popularity may continue. So long, too, as President Roosevelt leans to the Left (for it is the radical Roosevelt whom Father Coughlin supports), there will be a place for him at the White House.

There is, however, more emotion than profundity in his make-up, and there is always the possibility that Rome will put some check on his activities. Indeed, the probability is that he has already reached the peak of his success, and that sooner or later the American public, which is notoriously fickle to its popular favourites, will turn to other radio gods.

But when it does, it will have to find a man whose accent on the microphone is as compelling as the soft, Irish-Canadian brogue of Father Coughlin and whose reputation for sincerity stands as high with his admirers. For in Detroit the simplicity of Father Coughlin's life is a by-word, and, apart from the attacks launched by big business men, there has never been a suggestion that one of the hundreds of thousands of dollars which have flowed into the coffers of the Shrine of the Little Flower, has ever stuck to his own fingers.

At this time, more than at any other, it is necessary for the mother's blood to be rich, pure and plentiful, thereby strengthening the nervous system and ensuring for the life she has brought into the world maximum chance for health and happiness.

This is a powder containing over 500 mg. of pine resin, which is a natural tonic.

By this tonic action, whereby new, rich, red blood is created at every dose, Dr. Williams' Pine Pill has a marked influence in strengthening the heart, lungs, kidneys, liver, spleen, intestines, brain, etc., and in increasing the power of the heart and lungs.

Dr. Williams' Pine Pill is the world famous blood tonic, and is especially suited to those who have weak, anaemic, pale, watery, thin, etc., blood, and to those who have a tendency to faint, especially when they are excited.

FINCHER BROTHERS SECURE MOST SETS IN PREMIER LAWN TENNIS

H.D. RUMJAHN AND I.M.A. RAZACK PLACED SECOND IN COMPLETE LIST

PREMIER TENNIS TO-DAY

Many Hard Matches
Expected.

CHAMPIONS SHOULD IMPROVE POSITION

Several interesting contests will take place to-day in the "A" Division Lawn Tennis League fixtures, which are the penultimate block scheduled for this season.

The Kowloon Cricket Club will entertain the South China Athletic Association, and a close match should result, for, although South China are, as yet, unbeaten, the K.C.C. have only dropped one match.

The Fincher brothers can be expected to provide a hard resistance to the winning shots of D. C. Luk and W. T. Lee, while F. Gros and A. E. P. Guest are to be relied on to hold their end up.

I.R.C. May Hold Champions

At Sookunpoor the Indian Recreation Club will entertain the champions, the C.R.C., who are in a strong position to maintain their unbeaten record of last year.

One of the best matches of the day can be looked for in this clash, as the Indians, although not as strong as their opponents, can play sparkling tennis.

Sir D. Rumjahn and J. A. Cassumbhai should prove a stumbling block to the Chinese in at least two sets, while H. D. Rumjahn and I. M. A. Razack should win a set or two for the home team. When either of these pairs meet W. C. Hung and Iu Tak-cheuk, who are undefeated in 9 sets, a fine display of tennis should be witnessed.

U.S.R.C. Entertain Craigengower

The match at King's Park between the United Services R.C. and the Craigengower Cricket Club should also be fairly close.

These teams are both fairly well down in the table, and, with the possibility of improving their position before the end of the season, a spirited display is expected.

At Causeway Bay two Chinese teams, C.R.C. "B" and "C" will clash, and on form, the win should go to the "B" team. They have won one match of their five, while in four meetings the "C" team have not registered a point.

The Hong Kong Cricket Club will entertain the Club de Recreio, and perhaps the closest match to-day will result. The Club are always an unknown quantity, their team being most unsettled. With constant changes in pairings, it is difficult to gauge the quality of a team. The Recreio, however, can be depended on to give a brisk display and solid resistance to any team the Club may turn out, and with men like F. J. Barro and H. J. Remedios in their team, they have a good chance of winning.

OLD RECORD OF BOOKINS EXPECTED TO STAND

Los Angeles, June 25.

Whether or not Hardin will be credited with a new record in the 220 yards low hurdles is now open to doubt, although yesterday, at the National Inter-Collegiate Athletic Meeting, he was considered to have set a new world mark.

By means of an electrical time-keeper, he was shown to have completed the race in 23.16 seconds, which is outside the world's record of 23 seconds, established by C. R. Bookins, the American athlete, in 1924.

WINDSOR LAD EQUALS RECORD

LUCK SWINGS ROUND FOR SMIRKE

By ROBIN GOODFELLOW (Captain Eric Rickman)

1. WINDSOR LAD	(C. Smirke)	15-2
2. EASTON	(G. Richards)	16-3
3. COLOMBO	(W. Johnstone)	11-8
4. TIBERIUS	(G. Nicoll)	16-1

(Admiral Drake last.)

London, June 8.

In this year's Derby the young men triumphed. The winner's name, Windsor Lad, itself suggests youth, light-hearted and venturesome.

He is owned by the Maharajah of Rajpipla, who, whatever his age, is young in appearance and spirit.

No Derby owner in my time has dashed from the stands more quickly to meet his horse after the race than did the Maharajah. He was the first down the stairs, and was out on the course, hat in hand, almost before the last horse had passed the post.

He had been the one owner who had had sufficient confidence to declare that he did not fear the unbeaten, and reputed unbeatable, Colombo.

The time taken by Windsor Lad was 2 min. 34 sec., which equalled the record established by Hyperion in last year's Derby.

Marcus Marsh, who trains Windsor Lad, is 30 years of age, and this is the first season that he has been a public trainer.

Previously he had been associated with Captain Gooch, whom he assisted to carry on after he became an invalid as the result of an accident in the hunting field.

RICHARD MARSH'S SON

No one, we may be sure, was more pleased by the success of

TOO FAR FOR COLOMBO

Here are some extracts from Robin Goodfellow's description of the race:

Umidwar behaved like a green young horse with little experience of racing.

The unluckiest runner was Allahah. He stumbled and caused Perryman to lose both stirrups. Yet Allahah finished fifth.

Colombo's jockey, Johnstone, said his horse had every chance, but "weakened in the final furlong."

S. Donoghue, who rode Medieval Knight, said: "I made the running until the straight. After that my horse was done with."

G. Richards (Easton): "I waited in the Dip before challenging, but when I reached the leader's girth Windsor Lad went away again."

Windsor Lad than the King, because the young trainer is the son of the late Richard Marsh, who trained for his Majesty and for King Edward. Mr. Marsh won the Derby for King Edward three times—Persimmon, Diamond Jubilee, and Minoru.

Racing people believe in the general virtue of heredity, and both Windsor Lad and his trainer are worthy examples of this influence.

Marsh is the nephew of his

JOHNSTONE ON COLOMBO'S DEFEAT

mother's side of Fred Darling, who has won four Derbies, and was second yesterday with Lord Wavellington's Easton.

Windsor Lad is by Blandford, who has now sired three Derby winners, the others being Trigo and Elenhelm. Replendent, the dam of Windsor Lad, won the Irish Oaks and was second in the Oaks at Epsom to Short Story in 1926.

Perhaps the most striking human note of this Derby is the fact that Windsor Lad was ridden by C. Smirke, a jockey who incurred the displeasure of the Jockey Club a few years ago and had his licence withdrawn in consequence. It was restored to him towards the end of last season.

Smirke was one of the best young jockeys produced since the war. During his long period of unemployment he kept himself fit and light in the hope that sooner or later clemency would be shown him. But he has not found it easy to re-establish himself. His triumph yesterday is to him a romantic and wonderful stroke of fortune.

Lord Rosebery reminded me that there exists a parallel to Smirke's record. C. Wood, whose brilliance as a jockey old racegoers can recall, won the Derby on Galtee. More shortly after his licence, which had been withdrawn, was restored to him.

(By GEOFFREY SIMPSON)

London, June 8.

LEN HARVEY spent the whole of yesterday in a darkened room. This protection for his injured eye was deemed necessary by the contest, more by his boxing ability than by his fighting power.

I was glad to see him standing up calmly to his work, banging out gloomy, Harvey certainly was not, gloomy, Harvey certainly was not, I telephoned to see how he was, and this is what his wife told me.

Mrs. Harvey talking: "I think my husband is wonderful. He fought Jack Petersen for seven rounds with a closed eye, and now

Immediately after Benediction His Excellency carried the Blessed Sacrament to the sea wall and blessed, with the triple Sign of the Cross, the sampans and fishing boats in the little bay.

The St. Louis Boys' Band played during the procession and Benediction.

£1,200 MAIL BAG THEFT

Daring Robbery In South Africa

BOOTY ALL IN CASH

Johannesburg. Mail bag thief got away with £1,200 in notes after rifling a mail bag on the train from Somerset East to Johannesburg. It is believed that the theft took place between Cockhouse Junction and Germiston. The notes, which were old and soiled, were being sent to Pretoria for cancellation, the numbers of the notes are unknown, but they all bore the rubber stamp impression of the Somerset East branch of the Standard Bank. The police have now sent circulars containing all the possible information about the notes to all stores and banks in the country.

The last mail bag robbery occurred in October, 1933 when postal matter was removed from a train in transit between Johannesburg and Kingwilliamstown. Between 1929 and 1933 more than £22,000 was stolen in mail bag robberies. During the months October, 1932 to May, 1933, it was estimated that about £3,000 had been stolen from bags. — Reuter.

"BIGGEST WHITE PEOPLE"

New Yorkers' Tribute

Australians

SURVIVAL OF FITTEST

Melbourne, Victoria.

"Australians are the biggest white people in the world. We have never seen such tall men, and the majority of the women are much bigger than any I have ever seen," said Miss Claudia Cranston, who, with Miss Abe Booth, both New York journalists have just concluded a visit to Australia.

"If I could have one wish, I would wish my legs were as long as the legs of Australian women," she said. "Little girls of 12 and 13 look like girls of 18 in the States. They are huge for their age.

"We have decided that it is a case of the survival of the fittest. The small, weak people in Australia must freeze to death.

"Australia is a great big country, bursting out of its clothes, and doesn't know it yet," continued Miss Cranston. "The hotels everywhere are full, and the 'buses, trains, trams boats are full. That is a splendid thing, but it is not helpful to tourists."

Miss Cranston said she found the beds here were like steel hammocks. They would, she said, give her curvature of the spine, yet Australians have the straightest backs of any people she has seen.—Reuter.

"L. G." Rates Geneva

In a syndicated article which he has just written for publication abroad Mr. Lloyd George makes some bitter comments on the Disarmament Conference.

The members of the Conference are compared with doctors trying to find a harmless formula, which will serve as the death certificate for their patient.

"The chief mourners," he says, "will not be present at the funeral. They are the mothers whose sons, now grown-up, are destined to fall in the next war."

Even more caustic are his references to the series of Geneva cures, the "peace festival" of Locarno, and the Kellogg Pact.

Their futility is illustrated, he claims, by the fact that there is not a single European nation, from the Urals to the Atlantic, which has not a bigger and a better army at its disposal than at the time of the first meeting of the Disarmament Conference.

He Slings No Ink

At the age of seventy "L. G." ranks as one of the most prolific writers in Britain. During the last two years he has written well over 500,000 words.

He has many advantages over the average author: an efficient secretariat and an elaborate card-index for his huge mass of documents.

He can command, too, the advice and collaboration of former colleagues. The proofs of his new volumes, for instance, have been read by Mr. Stanley Baldwin.

"L. G." uses no artificial aids to the actual process of writing.

When Calvin Coolidge was taken to see Emily Dickinson's house, he showed no emotion until he saw the poet's pen.

"I dictate," he said, scornfully. "L. G." uses a pencil.

AMERICA'S PRIEST

OF THE AIR

FATHER COUGHLIN'S WORK
FOR THE NATION
RADIO CHAMPION OF POOR

(By R. H. Bruce Lockhart.)

London. one week his postbag contained over 600,000 letters! There were complaints. They came not only from rich business men but also from rich Catholics. But, to all these protests the Bishop of Detroit had one answer. "There is no heresy in what Father Coughlin says. I cannot interfere."

Censorship Threat

More serious was the attitude of the Columbia Radio Corporation, which threatened to impose a preliminary censorship on Father Coughlin's talks. He was equal to the occasion. He submitted the text of his next talk and had it approved. But, when he came to the microphone, he gave to his army of listeners an exact account of what had happened, excused himself for omitting his advertisement, and declared that if a free American citizen could not talk freely to other free American citizens he would rather not talk at all. The avalanche of letters was overwhelming. But this time it descended not upon the Shrine of the Little Flower but on the offices of the Columbia Radio Corporation. Father Coughlin had conquered.

Charles Edward Coughlin was born in 1891, the year in which his hero, Pope Leo XIII, issued his encyclical "Rerum Novarum" on the condition of the working classes. Father Coughlin is anti-Marxist and anti-Communist but he is the wireless champion of the poor. This man who to-day is helping to shape the destiny of the United States is not an American at all. His birthplace is Hamilton, Ontario, where his father was the local church sexton and an ex-stoker on a lake steamer. His mother was a farmer's daughter. Coughlin is an Irish-Canadian and talks with an Irish-Canadian brogue. It is perhaps his greatest asset. He is tall, heavily-built, and weight over thirteen stone.

After taking honours in philosophy at Toronto University and a three months trip to Europe, he decided to enter the Church; was ordained in 1916, and ten years later sent by his Bishop to open a new parish at Royal Oak, a suburb of Detroit.

It was a squalid suburb. The parish was poor and the number of parishioners very small. The church which he built was little more than a bungalow. As a priest he seemed doomed to years of insignificance.

Paying The Debt

Then he got the idea of making Royal Oak famous and paying off the church debt by broadcasting his sermons. The parishioners were doubtful, but Father Coughlin went to Bishop Gallagher, his friend and supporter, and the experiment was sanctioned—in spite of the financial risk.

Through a friend Father Coughlin bought his wireless time at cheap rates. At first he only broadcast his weekly sermons. The experiment, still unremunerative, was successful enough for his parishioners to form the Radio League of the Little Flower and in its name to ask for contributions. The response was sufficient to cover his expenses.

It was then that Father Coughlin remembered Pope Leo's encyclical. The slump had just hit the United States. He had studied economics. He would heal the economic ills of the country as well as the spiritual soul of its people. In his broadcast sermons he began to advocate the devaluation of the dollar. He began to attack prohibition, Herbert Hoover, Henry Ford, the Treaty of Versailles and Communism.

But there was a proviso about the Communism. The real danger of Bolshevism in the United States came, not from the foreign Reds, but the bankers and big businessmen. The response was more satisfactory. Letters began to pour in. Many were from non-Catholics. Nearly all contained cash. A special staff had to be engaged to deal with the influx. The results encouraged and emboldened Father Coughlin.

Sub-Inspector Armiti said that the quarrel arose over a debt of $8.50 which the complainant owed to the defendant. The latter had worked for over 20 years in the complainant's shipyard, which had closed down last November. He had lived with the complainant since that date, however, but yesterday morning, when he was asked to wait a little longer for his christening, Messrs. Morgan, Mellon, Ogden, Mills and Eugene Meyer (former head of the Federal Reserve Bank), the modern Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, the response was greater still, and in the leg.

Boatbuilder Uses Axe
To Collect His Money.

Sentencing a Chinese boatbuilder, Lo Kwei, to three months' hard labour for assaulting Lo Chiuching, the master of a Boatyard on Island Road, Aberdeen, and his wife, Pun Kiu, with an axe, Mr. E. W. Hamilton, of the Central Magistracy this morning, said that he took a very serious view of the case. "You might easily have killed someone with that axe," he added.

Sub-Inspector Armiti said that the quarrel arose over a debt of $8.50 which the complainant owed to the defendant. The latter had worked for over 20 years in the complainant's shipyard, which had closed down last November. He had lived with the complainant since that date, however, but yesterday morning, when he was asked to wait a little longer for his christening, Messrs. Morgan, Mellon, Ogden, Mills and Eugene Meyer (former head of the Federal Reserve Bank), the modern Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, the response was greater still, and in the leg.

LEAVE FOR APPEAL
GRANTEDM. Y. San And Co. (1927)
Ltd. Seek Judgment
Reversal.VITAL POINT OVERLOOKED
STATES DEFENCE

Before the Full Court, comprised of His Honour the Chief Justice, Mr. A. D. A. McGregor and Mr. Justice P. Jacks, Messrs. M. Y. San and Co. (1927) Limited, of No. 96, Queen's Road Central, were granted leave to appeal against the judgment of Mr. Justice Jacks, given on June 18, in the summary jurisdiction action brought against them by Mrs. Li Hon-ping, of No. 63, Bonham Road for $825.60.

Mr. R. C. H. Lim, instructed by Mr. W. C. Lowe, of Messrs. Dennys and Company, appeared for the appellants, who were named as the defendants in the previous action.

The plaintiff's claim was for $825.60, being the balance due to her by the defendants as the makers of a promissory note in favour of the plaintiff, dated September 15, 1927.

Mr. Lim, outlining his grounds for appeal stated that the defendant company, M. Y. San and Co. (1927) Limited, took over the assets and liabilities of the old M. Y. San and Company in 1927, which was at that time in liquidation.

New Company's Scheme.
A scheme of arrangement was drawn up by which the new company came to an agreement with the creditors, by which the new company were to allot fully paid up ordinary shares to unsecured creditors to the extent of 40 per cent. of their claims. This was duly carried out.

Another condition of the scheme arrangement was that the new company should pay out of the profits of the company, after paying a dividend on preference shares, a further 40 per cent. of the claims.

The defendants issued their creditors with documents to this effect.

In the court below, two points of defence were brought. The first was that no promissory notes had been given, and the second that even if the documents were taken to be promissory notes, it should be considered, in conjunction with the deed of arrangement, that no claim was valid on the grounds that no profits were made in 1922.

Point Overlooked.

Mr. Justice Jacks had held that the documents sued on were promissory notes, and the grounds of appeal must, therefore, be the same as those of the defence.

Mr. Lim pointed out that the learned Judge, in giving judgment, had entirely overlooked the source out of which the Company should have paid its creditors, namely, out of profits.

After hearing Mr. Lim's application His Lordship granted permission to appeal.

DECISION ON JUNE 27

The Premier, Viscount M. Saito, Baron T. Yamamoto, Home Minister, and Mr. Korekiyo Takahashi, Finance Minister, agreed on June 27, that they would resign as soon as the inquiry of the corruption charges against high officials of the Finance Ministry were completed by Mr. M. Koyama, Justice Minister.

Following the regular meeting of the Cabinet Council on June 28, the "big three" of the Saito Cabinet considered their attitude in connection with the corruption case.

The decision of Mr. Takahashi to resign, taking direct responsibility for the case, was very firm and could not be altered.

NEW SAITO CABINET?

According to information from reliable sources, elder statesmen of the country are still favourable to the Saito Government and may suggest that the Emperor should reject the resignation of the Cabinet. It is also reported that the elder statesmen desire the Emperor should order Viscount Saito to form a new cabinet.

Prognosticators have been predicting the fall of the Saito Cabinet since May 20, when Mr. Kuroda, former Vice-Minister of Finance, was arrested on charges of graft.

MISS SHENTON ILL.

Fined $10 For Speeding
In Controlled Area.

Mr. W. A. Mackinlay appeared at the Central Magistracy before Mr. E. W. Hamilton this morning to plead guilty to a technical offence on behalf of Miss Y. Shenton, daughter of Sir William Shenton, who was summoned for driving at 30 m.p.h. through the controlled area at Whitfield.

Mr. Mackinlay said that Miss Shenton was ill, or would have otherwise attended the Court. He hoped that there was no suggestion of there being any danger, as he did not want to make any admission on behalf of Miss Shenton, except to a technical offence.

The Magistrate replied that he was not prepared to accept that plea and suggested an adjournment.

Mr. Mackinlay said that in any event Miss Shenton was not charged with driving dangerously, and that a plea of guilty would meet the summons.

A fine of $10 was imposed.

PASSED LORRY IN WHITFIELD

To-day's Short Story.

He Fought
A Ghost

By Louis Golding.

THIS is the story of one of the most luridly exciting prize-fights in history. It is true that the fight involved fewer men than the Carpenter, Dempsey or Tunney affairs involved pounds.

It is true that the spectators numbered their hundreds rather than their tens of thousands.

Yet the fact remains that for lurid excitement none of the championship affairs in recent history can begin to compare with that strange bout between Deaf Burke and Samuel O'Rourke.

They were both Irishmen by origin as their names indicate. But on that day in New Orleans they were England versus the States, the Old World versus the New World. They were also a living man versus an unsleeping ghost.

I said that the excitement was lurid. I mean precisely that.

It was not the glorious excitement of pure boxing, such excitement as very nearly lifted the scalp off at the heroic contests of Bendigo versus Ben Caunt, or Tom Sayers versus John Heenan. It was the excitement not of the bare fists, but of the bared knife. It was pure, and perhaps impure, melodrama.

There were only three rounds fought, that day in New Orleans. That is a fairly respectable number compared with certain hectically advertised modern bouts which have come to an end in not many more seconds. But it was a miserable number then, when those gigantic creatures sometimes went on pummelling at each other for many more than a hundred rounds. Deaf Burke himself, much earlier in his career, took a certain Bill Fitzmaurice through it for no fewer than a hundred and sixty-six rounds. Yet, compared with those ultra-violent three rounds in New Orleans, the affair with Fitzmaurice was about as exciting as a hard-boiled egg.

Who was this Deaf Burke?

And what on earth was he doing in New Orleans? For it is a long way to pour out tea for the children at a curate's party.

During the whole journey he grimaced, he guffawed, he cavorted up and down the ring before his fights started, like a huge baby.

The Maharajah of Rajpipla was the first owner to offer Smirke a retainer when he resumed riding. Colombo did not stay the mile and a half as well as the two horses who finished in front of him. In the course of the race he met with a little interference, but I refuse to believe that this was fatal.

Let his jockey, Johnstone, tell the story himself: "I took second place to Medieval Knight at the end of the first furlong. Evidently Donoghue was trying to lead all the way on Medieval Knight; but coming down the hill to Tattenham Corner that horse weakened quickly.

"I was just behind him, and as he dropped back on me I could not pull round him immediately because Tiberius and Fleetfoot were on my outside. I had to check my horse momentarily, but soon obtained a clear run. Colombo had every chance in the straight, but after he had drawn up to the girths of Windsor Lad he weakened in the last furlong."

Colombo was quite cool in the paddock and conducted himself perfectly in the parade and at the post.

The only hard luck story I heard was of Alishah, who stumbled to such an extent during the race that his jockey, Perryman, lost both stirrups and rode without them for a while. Alishah finished fifth, just behind Tiberius, and a length or so in front of his more fancied stable companion Umidwar, who was sixth.

UMIDWAR

UMIDWAR, will doubtless improve in the course of the season. Windsor Lad did not run for the Two Thousand Guineas, but Easton came from France to finish second to Colombo in that race. The change in that form may be due in part to the improvement effected in Easton by English oats and English hay. Lord Woolavington gave £16,000 for him after the Guineas.

Percy Carter, who trained the colt in France, came to see him run, and as he had a bet of 35 to 1 against Easton being placed in both the Two Thousand and the Derby was well pleased with the result.

Windsor Lad, by the way, cost his owner £1,300 gns. as a yearling at Newmarket. He was bred by Mr. O. Sullivan, a successful Irish breeder of thoroughbreds and cattle.

Tiberius early in the race was last. He made up ground so fast that he was first into the straight, attended by the outsider Fleetfoot, Primero, Windsor Lad, Easton and Colombo. Immediately afterwards Windsor Lad shot into the lead and for a short while it looked as if Primero was his most formidable rival.

WELL-BACKED

Bondman was in the first four six furlongs from home, but he dropped out before reaching Tattenham Corner.

The Maharajah of Rajpipla lives, when in England, at the Manor House, Old Windsor, and both there and in India he entertains his English friends in a princely manner. He owned Embargo, who won good races a few years ago.

For many weeks past Windsor Lad has been one of the best-backed horses. A substantial commission was placed at 25 to 1.

I do not know if the Maharajah is a heavy bettor, but if he supported his horse in keeping with the confidence he expressed in his chance he must have won a substantial sum. He received afterwards the congratulations of the King, and Mr. Marsh was similarly honoured.

Windsor Lad was a very popular fancy. He started third-favourite at 15 to 2, Colombo's price hardened, and he started at 11 to 8. The first five in the betting were in the first six at the finish. Windsor Lad has won his three races this season, including the Chester Vase. Hyperion took that race last year before passing to his great victory in the Derby.

HE FOUGHT A GHOST

As was said earlier, from the point of view of mere fighting, the Burke-O'Bourke affair does not rank high in the annals of prize-fighting. There were only three rounds fought. O'Rourke thrust in a few sharp ones to the ribs. Deaf Burke got over some of those great swinging smashes which had done so much damage on the other side of the water.

But the sight of those moustaches bristling, those lips twisting, those knives glinting, must have taken a little polish off his style. The fight was officially between Deaf Burke and Samuel O'Rourke, but O'Rourke's second, a brisk gentleman named Micky Carson, took up a great deal of the limelight. In the second round he crept up behind the Englishman and shoved him into O'Rourke's arms. O'Rourke promptly threw him and fell on top of him.

Deaf Burke was displeased. He informed Mr. Carson he would knock him down if he did such a

HARVEY'S TRIBUTE TO PETERSEN

He showed better work in defense, too. We will allow for Harvey's poor vision and his consequent inaccuracy of timing, but I thought Petersen's stopping and parrying was on a higher plane than usual.

Particularly did he find a guard for Harvey's left hook, which is one of the best punches to be seen in a ring to-day. He was vulnerable to this all through the previous fight.

Whatever else these two meetings with Harvey have done for Petersen, they have certainly taught him the value of restraint. They have shown him that he must not expect to put a good man away with one punch on the jaw, but that he must first baulk up a winning situation.

TINGE OF DOUBT

It was a pity about Harvey's eye. It has left just that tinge of doubt of what might have been. But accepting the form at its face value the young Welshman has taken a good stride forward in all-round ability.

As he is younger than Harvey, as well as a bigger man and a heavier puncher, there is satisfaction in seeing him back on his old pedestal. But close attention will have to be paid to that injured eyebrow.

This old wound was reopened again by Harvey. The injury has recurred four times in Petersen's last five bouts. I think he should take a rest while expert treatment is administered.

If Jeff Dickson has his way Petersen will be donning the gloves again in July. He has an option on the services of Larry Gaines for an Empire title match. This, too, would be staged at the White City, but it is better to wait a month before discussing this.
